COVENANT OF CONDUCT

I realize that Zion is a community of faith and as a guest, I am responsible for my actions. While in attendance at events sponsored by the Zion Lutheran Church Youth Program, I promise to act appropriately in actions and words, by:

- Understanding that Zion is not responsible for me or my actions until I arrive on property at 107 West Main Street;
- Remaining on Safe House designated areas for the entire event.
I understand that I may not leave to walk to a surrounding location (LDS, Main Cup, the garden, the cemetery, etc.) without Adult Volunteer permission for the whole group;
- Behaving in a way that shows respect for all persons and their personal property;
- Refraining from the use of profanity;
- Committing to edifying (building one another up) and encouraging others;
- Refraining from the use or possession of drugs, alcoholic beverages, and tobacco;
- Respecting the Safe House areas in Zion and all surrounding property;
- Listening to and abiding by the guidelines and rules of all adult leaders and youth leaders;
- Bringing my personal property at my own risk. I understand that personal property cannot be left at Safe House. Zion Lutheran Church is not responsible for lost, stolen, or damaged personal property.
- Refraining from using cell phone during group activities or other times designated by leaders out of respect for the group;
- Signing in (with arrival time) at the beginning of each Safe House session;
- Cleaning up any cups, plates, trash that I used while at Safe House; and
- Telling an adult and signing out each time before I leave for the evening. You must have parental permission to leave early or leave with someone else
- Once signed out, you cannot return that day.
- Whenever school is on break, cancelled or closed early on a Thursday, there is no Thursday Safe House that week.

If I violate any part of this "Covenant of Conduct", I may have my parents/ guardians notified by phone and they may be asked to pick me up immediately. If future violations continue, there will be discussion with my parents/guardians and a meeting to determine future involvement at the youth house or other youth activities.

I have read and understand the Covenant of Conduct above and I agree to abide by it.
